McClellan Asked to Subpoena Sheriff

NEW ORLEANS (AP) Sen John L. McClellan (D-Ark) chairman of the U.S. Senate Rackets Committee, is being asked to subpoena Sherlif William Coci of adjoining Jefferson Parish.

The Metropolitan Crime Commission said yesterday it would ask that Coci be subpounsed to testify about an accusation that he is linked with racketeer Carlos Marcello.

Edward D. Finley, president of the local crime-fighting group, told Coci in a letter that the cefusal by Marcello to testify about his connections with Cocl "casts a cloud upon the conduct of your office, which should be rebuitted under outh."

Finley said it is up to Coci to go before the committee to answer the charges that he is allied in illegal activities with Marcello, Coul has declined an invitation to appear, He called Anron Kohn, Crime Commission director who testified about the Coci-Marcello link, a "congenital liar" and "reformer for money."
